LIVINGSTON COLLEGE
Puerto Rican Studies
New Brunswick, New Jersey
Tel: 932-3954-55

March 20, 1972

LECTURE SERIES ON PUERTO RICO AND COLONIALISM

1. Thurs. March 30, 1972 "Colonialism and its manifestation within the Puerto Rican People (In the U.S. and Puerto Rico)"
By: Mr. Ramón Arbona in Tillett Hall Room 1011

2. Thurs. April 6, 1972 "Colonialism, Imperialism, and Capitalism in Puerto Rico."
By: Rubén Berrios, Esq.in Tillett Hall Room 1011

3. Thurs.,April 13, 1972 "Alternatives to Colonialism: Socialism vs. Capitalism in the Republic of Puerto Rico."
By: Juan Mari Bras, Esq.

4. Thurs. April 20, 1972 "The Social and Psychological Impact of Colonialism"
By: Dr. Luis Nieves Falcón

5. Thurs. April 27, 1972 "The Colonial Forms: Puerto Rican Experience and the Caribbean."
By: Norman Pietri Castellón, Esq.

6. Thurs. May 4, 1972 "The Workers Before the Colonial Case of Puerto Rico."
By: Mr. Angel Quintero

7. Wed. May 10, 1972 "The Puerto Rican Culture and Identity under Colonialism."
By: Dr. Francisco Manrique Cabrera

8. Thurs. May 11, 1972 "Pedro Albizu Campos: Nationalist Party's Position on Colonialism."
By: Lorenzo Piñeiro Rivera, Esq.

9. Thurs. May 18, 1972 "The Church Before the Colonial Case of Puerto Rico."
By: Roman Catholic Bishop Antulio Parrilla

All the lectures will take place in Tillett Hall, Room 1011 at 7:30 P.M.

RUTGERS UNIVERSITY The State University of New Jersey

INTERDEPARTMENT COMMUNICATION

March 13, 1972

LECTURE SERIES ON PUERTO RICO AND COLONIALISM

Bio Sketches

A. Thurs., March 30, 1972 "Colonialism and Its Manifestation Within the Puerto Rican People (in U.S. and Puerto Rico)"

Speaker: Ramón Arbona Martinez:
College instructor in Fordham University and Eugenio María de Hostos Community College in New York. An Active member of pro-independence movements in Puerto Rico; he is currently Secretary of the United States chapter of the Puerto Rican Socialist Party. He has been the editor of the weekly newspaper, Claridad, President of FUPI, and a member of the Political Commission of the Pro Independence Movement (MPI) of Puerto Rico.

B. Thurs., April 6, 1972 "Colonialism, Imperialism and Capitalism in Puerto Rico"

Speaker: Ruben Berrios, Esq.
Lawyer, graduate of Harvard and Oxford Universities. He is currently the President of the Puerto Rican Independence Party, and until recently a professor of Law in the University of Puerto Rico. He received island wide recognition for his leadership in Culebra.

C. Thurs., April 13, 1972 "Alternatives to Colonialism: Socialism vs. Capitalism in the Republic of Puerto Rico"

Speaker: Juan Mari Bras, Esq.
Lawyer and journalist, he has been a leader of independence movements in Puerto Rico for the past 25 years. In 1948, he was expelled from the University of Puerto Rico for having directed a student strike, and continued his studies in the United States. One of the founders of the Pro Independence Movement (MPI), he is presently editor of Claridad, and Secretary General of the Puerto Rican Socialist Party. Representing Puerto Rico in international forums, he has traveled throughout Latin America, Asia and the United States.

D. Thurs.,April 20, 1972 "The Social and Psychological Impact of Colonialism"

Speaker: Dr. Luis Nieves Falcón:
Sociologist, graduate of the London School of Economics and Political Science, he is currently a Professor of Sociology, University of Puerto Rico and on leave in order to accept a Distinguished Professorship in the Department of Puerto Rican Studies, Brooklyn College in New York. Under his direction, the Research Center of the University of Puerto Rico published countless studies of immediate relevance to the problems facing Puerto Rico. His most recent book Grito y Mordaza, is a descriptive study of the March 11 riots in the University of Puerto Rico.

E. Thurs., April 27,1972 "The Colonial Forms: The Puerto Rican Experience and the Caribbean"

Speaker: Norman Pietri Castellón:
Lawyer and journalist. One of the highly respected youth leaders in Puerto Rico, he is secretary of the San Juan area for the Puerto Rican Independence Party. He has been editor of Claridad, President of FUPI, and the youth branch of MPI, past member of the Political Commission of the MPI. He is currently a contributor to the newspaper, LA HORA.

F. Thurs., May 4, 1972 "The Workers Before the Colonial Case of Puerto Rico"

Speaker: Angel Quintero Rivera:
A founding member of CEREP, (Center for the Study of the Puerto Rican Reality) he is a graduate of the London School of Economics and Political Science, for which he is preparing his doctoral thesis. He is author of Lucha Obrera en Puerto Rico and El liderato local de los partidos y el estudio de la política puertorriqueña.

G. Wed., May 10,1972,"Puerto Rican Culture and Identity Under Colonialism"

Speaker: Dr. Francisco Manrique Cabrera:
Poet writer, author of Historia de la Literatura Puertorriqueña. He is a leading figure in the independence movement. Currently a professor of literature in the University of Puerto Rico, he has been a director of the MPI and a member of the Political Commission of MPI.

H. Thurs. May 11,1972 "Pedro Albizu Campos: The Nationalist Party Position on Colonialism"

Speaker: Lorenzo Piñeiro Rivera, Esq.
Lawyer and journalist, he was the General Secretary of the Nationalist Party, outlining the Ponce Massacre of 1937.

In New York, he founded the Pro Independence Association, and was President of the Pro Independence Party (PIP) Committee. In Puerto Rico he was elected Secretary General of the PIP and Senator to the Puerto Rican Congress in 1956. One of the founders of MPI, he served as secretary general, and director of that Pary. He is presently writing a book on the life and work of Pedro Albizu Campos.

I. Thurs.,May 18, 1972 "The Church Before the Colonial Case of Puerto Rico"

Speaker: Roman Catholic Bishop Antulio Parrilla:
Catholic Bishop, national figure unifying all of the independist ideologies, active in all aspects of Puerto Rican life, he has been stripped by the Church of his Diocesis and official religious duties. He is the author of Puerto Rico: supervivencia y liberación.

Doyle Lockhart
219 East FRONT St.
behind Arnold Constable
Tel. 599-9221
609
4-6 PM.
x Tuesday.